

Hospital Auxiliary Closes Year At Luncheon

ASSUME OFFICIAL DUTIES

New officers of Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, who will guide activities during the coming year, were installed at the luncheon meeting held at the Plush Horse. They are, seated from left, Mmes. John Rice, first vice president; James Kimble, president; standing, from left, Mmes. Frank Bashor, second vice-president; William J. MacCabe, third vice-president; with Mrs. Leon Warne, who served as installing officer.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Installs New Officers, Awards Service Pins

Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary installed its new officers and paid recognition to its members for their hours of service at the hospital, at a luncheon Tuesday at the Plush Horse restaurant.

In an impressive ceremony, using the yellow rose, which was also used in table arrangements, Mrs. Leon Warne installed the new auxiliary leaders.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. James Kimble assumed the presidency for the coming year succeeding Mrs. James K. Lees. Others endowed with their official duties were Mmes. John Rice, first vice-president; Frank Bashor, second vice-president; William MacCabe, third vice-president; and Robert Sleeth, Jr., recording secretary.

★ ★ ★

Accepting chairmanships were Mmes. Chalmers Strayer and James Dutton, baby photos; Joseph Helphand, gift shop; Harvey L. Rushfeldt, maternity teas; Kenneth Miller, Candy Strippers; Melvin J. Wells, reception desk; Don Moyer, publicity; and Henry Heinlein, Pinkie Sewing.

★ ★ ★

The Auxiliary has totaled 14,000 hours in service at the hospital during the past year. Mrs. John E. Popovich, with a total of 3,000, was especially honored for having served the highest number of hours of volunteer work in the history of the auxiliary. Among others receiving pins for exceptionally high number of service hours were Mrs. Irwin O. Kasten with 2,000 hours; Mrs. James K. Lees and Mrs. Leon M. Warne, both with 1,000 hours.

SETS SERVICE HOUR RECORD

For the first time in the history of the Torrance Hospital Auxiliary, a volunteer has recorded more than 3,000 hours of hospital service. She is Mrs. John E. Popovich, center, receiving her pin. With her are other auxiliary members who have an outstanding number of hours to their credit. They are from left, Mmes. I. O. Kasten, 2,000 hours; James K. Lees, retiring president, 1,000 hours; Mrs. Popovich being pinned by Mrs. James McClaran, credits chairman, while Mrs. Leon Warne, with 1,000 hours, looks on.

(Press-Herald Photo)

VISIT THE WINE CELLAR

To make their selections of wines for their Wine Tasting Dinner Party, these members of the Torrance Woman's Club visit the Brookside Winery. They are, from left, Mmes. Jack Dean, program chairman; William Mossman, chairman of entertainment; and H. Ted Olson, incoming president. The event will be held at the clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave. on Wednesday evening, May 4.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

APRIL 27, 1966

B-1

Woman's Club Guest Night

Wine and Dine, Enjoy Musicale

Torrance Woman's Club will entertain husbands and guests at a catered dinner and wine-tasting party on Wednesday evening, May 4 at the clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave.

★ ★ ★

Following the dinner, members and guests will be entertained at a program by the Drama and Music Section of the club. Participating will be Mmes. William Mossman, Andrew Acampora, H. G. Cahill, and L. G. Pulliam.

Mrs. J. P. Bay is serving as general chairman of the event. Mrs. Robin Bingham is dinner chairman.

Proceeds from the affair will go to the club's philanthropic fund.

★ ★ ★

Accepting reservations for the ways and means benefit are Mmes. J. G. Louvier, W. C. Moyer and James Burchett.

Dinner-Dance at Tasman Seas

Lioness Installation Set

Mrs. Jack Smith, 38 Eastfield Rd., Rolling Hills will be installed as president of the Torrance Lioness Club at a dinner dance, at which their husbands, members of the Torrance Lions Club, will be guests. The affair is planned for May 14 at the Tasman Seas restaurant.

Mrs. Smith, a native of Torrance, has been active in the Lioness Club for the past 12 years. Her husband is the local agent for State Farm Insurance.

The couple has three

MRS. JACK SMITH
... New President
(Press-Herald Photo)

children, Sandy, 14, Mike 5, and Scott, 11 months. The family attends St. John Fisher Church in Rolling Hills.

Mrs. Smith succeeds Mrs. Paul Burnam as president.

Also to be installed at the dinner dance are Mmes. John Ritchie, first vice president; Louis Assink, second vice president; Ross Morris, corresponding secretary; Robert Williams, recording secretary; Byron Chan, treasurer; and Joe Bonando, hair puller.

Palos Verdes Homes Tour Set

Representing California's architectural and cultural highlights are the five homes to be opened to the public on the 17th annual Palos Verdes Peninsula Homes Tour to be presented again this year by the Women of the St. Francis Episcopal Church, Palos Verdes Estates. The two-day Homes Tour is slated for Saturday and Sunday, April 30 and May 1.

The five homes, in architecture and furnishing, represent 18th Century French Mexican Colonial, Mediterranean, Oriental, and an elegant combination of European and American. Homes to be open from 1 until 5 p.m. on both tour days are those of Darty Cronin, 17 Georgeff, Rolling Hills; Roy Nutt, 700 Via Somonte, Palos Verdes Estates; Lloyd H. Olson, 16 Roadrunner, Rolling Hills; Richard M. Taube, 4194 Maritime Rd., Portuguese Bend; and Roscoe J. Wood, 15 Narcissa Dr., Portuguese Bend.

The Women of St. Francis Church will welcome visitors for tea in the parish hall from 2 until 5 p.m. both days. At the conclusion of the tour, a door prize, a weekend at the Hotel Del

Charro in La Jolla, will be awarded.

The tour route will be marked clearly by blue arrows. Traffic directors will wear traditional blue helmets to assist with parking at each of the five residences.

Mrs. Jack M. Lynn is serving as general chairman of the Homes Tour. She is being assisted by Eugene Vaslette, advertising; Gay Little, brochures; Edward Conners, photography; Mrs. Milan Chiba, flyers chairman; and Mrs. John Duff, supplies.

Others assisting are Mmes.

Edgar F. Nason, flowers and gifts; Raun Robinson, tickets; Quentin McKenna, treasurer; David Clark, hostesses; Ray Vaughters, tea; George Young, president of the Church Women; Emery B. Emmes, publicity; and Mr. Robert Mackichan, traffic.

Ticket-brochures may be obtained on tour days at Neptune's Fountain; Malaga Cove Plaza in Palos Verdes Estates; at the gate to Rolling Hills and at each of the display homes. There is a special price for student visitors and children under 12 will be admitted free.

DISTRIBUTE HOMES TOUR BROCHURES

At the entrance of "Falling Waters", the Darty Cronin home in Rolling Hills, these three members of the committee for the Palos Verdes Homes Tour deliver a ticket brochure. They are, from left, Mmes. Paul Winn, serving on the home selections committee for the sponsoring organization, the Women of St. Francis Episcopal Church; John Duff, supply chairman, handing the brochure to Mrs. Jack Lynn, general chairman of the Homes Tour. Proceeds from the annual two-day event, April 30 and May 1, will go to the church women's many philanthropies.

(Press-Herald Photo)